

CPA EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATE

Introduction

The Telfer School of Management at the University of Ottawa has delivered a very successful, three module program, in Executive Leadership for the Canadian Police Association since 2009. To date over 200 graduates have received their Professional Certificates in Executive Leadership. Module I, offered in April 2020, starts the eighth cohort of the full program.

Program Design

The program is designed primarily for elected leaders and executive staff of the constituent associations of the CPA and their international colleagues. Representatives of other employee associations or unions will also be invited to participate. The main elements covered in the program design include:

Module I - Leadership, Advocacy and Communications

April 22-25, 2020

- Leadership development and performance
- Advocacy and government relations,
- Media and communications

Module I commences at 6:00 pm on Wed. April 22nd and concludes by 11:30 am Sat. April 25th.

Module II - Advanced Negotiations and the Psychology of Bargaining

November 2020

- Bargaining
- Negotiation
- Member Issues

Module III - Strategic Choices, Implementation and Governance

April 2021

- Strategy choices and planning,
- Implementation of strategic plans
- Governance

Professional Certificate

Those who complete all three courses will receive a special 'Professional Certificate in Executive Leadership' offered jointly by the Telfer School of Management and the Canadian Police Association.
